1. Seven rows of 12 Pe-2s each and 10 biplanes were parked at the STRASSHOFF airfield. The occupation of the quarters had not changed. A plane which stood in the repair shop at the western edge of the airfield had the following features: five brakes set between engine and wing tips, one gun muzzle each in leading edges of wings between engine and wing tips; an aircraft weapon firing to the rear from full-view cockpit, two aircraft weapons installed in nose compartment.

2. A signboard bearing the No. 40 334 was observed in DEUTSCHENBRUNN (P 49/3 50). *

The motor vehicle [REDACTED] was parked in front of the kitchen at 56 Bahnhofstrasse and the jeep [REDACTED] in front of the kommandatura on Bahnhofstrasse.

3. STRASSHOFF was also heavily occupied by the Soviet Air Force.
